About me

About me

Hi, my name is Paweł. I'm a IT student. As long as I remember technology had a special place in my interests. I love to watch developing potential of devicest near us and how slowly, but systematically they become inseparable elements of our lives. Smartphones, SmartTVs, Smart-Refrigerators and all SmartWerable are just few examples of that phenomena and my reaction for all of that was "I nead to be a part of that proces!". Not only as passive consumer, but as co-creator of modern word where evrything is connected. I also invite you to my created in Next.js website technology: https://pp-portfolio.vercel.app/ . Its repositories are available on my GitHub.
